

East Grinstead u3a Privacy Policy

East Grinstead U3A treats your privacy rights seriously. This privacy policy sets out how we will deal with your 'personal information', that is, information that could identify, or is related to the identity of, an individual.

What personal information do we collect?

When you express an interest in becoming a member of East Grinstead U3A you will be asked to provide certain information. This includes:

- your name
- home address
- email address
- telephone number and or mobile number
- your subscription preferences
- your emergency contact data

How we collect this personal information

All the information collected is obtained directly from you. This is usually at the point of your initial registration. The information will be collected via membership forms, questionnaires or online contact forms. The lawful basis for collecting and storing your information is due to the contractual relationship that you, as a member, have with the u3a. In order to inform you about the interest groups, activities and events that you can access as a member we need to store and process a certain amount of personal data.

How we use your personal information

We use your personal information:

- To provide our U3A activities and services to you
- For administration, planning and management of our U3A
- To communicate with you about your group activities
- To monitor, develop and improve the provision of our U3A activity

We'll send you messages by email, post, other digital methods and telephone to advise you of U3A activities.

With whom we share your personal information

We may disclose information about you, including your personal information

- Internally – to committee members and group conveners – as required to facilitate your participation in our U3A activities;
- Externally – with your consent for products or services such as direct mailing for the Trust magazines – Third Age Trust and Sources;
- If we have a statutory duty to disclose it for other legal and regulatory reasons.

Where we need to share your information outside of the U3A we will seek your consent and inform you as to who the information will be shared with and for what purpose.

How long we keep your personal information

We need to keep your information so that we can provide our services to you. In most instances information about your membership will not be stored for longer than 12 months unless you have opted to register for UK Gift Aid. The exceptions to this are instances where there may be legal or insurance circumstances that require information to be held for longer whilst the issues are investigated or resolved. Where this is the case member/s will be informed as to how long the information will be held for and when it is deleted.

How your information can be updated or corrected

To ensure the information we hold is accurate and up to date, member's need to inform the U3A as to any changes to their personal information. You can do this by contacting the membership secretary. On an annual basis you will have the opportunity to update your information, as required, via the membership renewal process. Following on the introduction of our Beacon membership database you are able to log in via the Beacon Portal to amend your personal data as required. Should you wish to view the information that the U3A holds on you, you can make this request by contacting the membership secretary – as detailed above, or by interrogating the Beacon Portal. There may be certain circumstances where we are not able to comply with this request. This would include where the information may contain references to other individuals or for legal, investigative or security reasons. Otherwise we will usually respond within 14 days of the request being made.

How we store your personal information

We have in place a range of security safeguards to protect your personal information against loss or theft, as well as unauthorised access, disclosure, copying, use or modification. Security measures include technological measures such as Secure Socket Layer (SSL) encryption, which creates a secure connection with your browser when you register and login into our online services. (You need to check the security settings of your website and consider how you store and delete information that is collected via the website) Your membership information is held on our Beacon database and accessed by Committee Members and Group Conveners – as appropriate.

Availability and changes to this policy

This policy is available on our website This policy may change from time to time. If we make any material changes we will make members aware of this by the most appropriate means.

Contact

If you have any queries about this policy, need it in an alternative format, or have any complaints about our privacy practices, please contact our Secretary at secretary@eastgrinsteadu3a.co.uk or send an email message from the Contact page.

This policy was reviewed on: 31st March 2023

Next review date: March 2025